-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on Feb. 28, 2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by D'Evelyn et al. (7,251,312).

Regarding claims 1, 8, 11, 14, 18, and 22-23, D'Evelyn discloses a method and system for availing participants in a special number call event and others of information contained in a plurality of data stores, comprising:

receiving, at an emergency service entity, a wireless call back number from a mobile station controller serving the at least one wireless unit, the least one tag identifier (see fig.3, elements 224, 248, 124, col.7, line 44-col.8 line 3,col.15, lines 38-49);

receiving, at an emergency service entity, the least one tag identifier from a public safety answering point call center in response to the emergency call from the at least one wireless unit (see fig.3, element 124, 126, 244, col.15, line 47-col.16, line 13) transmitting, from the emergency service entity, to the public safety answering point call center, the wireless call back number corresponding with the at least one tag identifier in response to receiving the at least one tag identifier (see fig.3, element 124, 126, col.16, lines 14-21).

Regarding claims 2, 9, 15, 19, D'Evelyn further discloses, wherein the at least one tag identifier comprises a reference key to a database (see col.9, lines 4-26).

Regarding claims 3, 25, D'Evelyn further discloses, wherein the database comprises at least one of an emergency call register and an emergency service message entity (see fig.3, elements 125, 124, col.9, lines 4-26).

Regarding claims 4, 10, 16, 20, 26-27, D'Evelyn further discloses wherein the at least one tag identifier corresponds with at least one of an emergency service routing key, a local public safety number, a paging identity and a mobile equipment identification number (see col.9, lines 4-26).

Regarding claim 5, 12-13, 21, 24, D'Evelyn further discloses wherein a public service answering point emergency call register receives the at least one tag identifier and transmits the wireless call back number over a network interface between a public service answering point emergency call register and the public service answering point call center (see fig.3, element 125 and 126).

Regarding claim 6, D'Evelyn further discloses, wherein the step of transmitting a wireless call back number comprises: transmitting location information associated with the at least one wireless unit, the location information corresponding with the at least one tag identifier (see col.15, line 47-col.16, line 13).

Regarding claim 7, D'Evelyn further discloses, wherein an emergency service message entity transmits the location information associated with the at least one wireless unit (see col.15, line 47-col.16, line 13).

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Houde et al. (6, 128,481).

Regarding claim 8, Houde discloses a system and method of routing emergency services call in a radio telecommunications network, comprising:

transmitting to the emergency call register (46) and public safety answering point call center (48) at least one tag identifier (45) from a mobile switching center (43) associated with the at least one wireless unit in response to the emergency call from the at least one wireless unit (41) (see figs.3-4, col.3, lines 19-34).

Regarding claim 9, Houde further discloses, wherein the at least one tag identifier comprises a reference key (45) to the emergency call register (46) (see col.3, lines 19-23).

Regarding claim 10, Houde further discloses, wherein the at least one tag identifier corresponds with at least one of an emergency service routing key, a local public safety number, a paging identity and a mobile equipment identification number (see col.3, lines 19-23).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to CongVan Tran whose telephone number is 571-272-7871. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
